

Environment Colloquium

As association between TANSAA and
A Rocha

May 22nd BCNZ

Speakers

Professor John Flenley: For the Beauty of the Earth

Dr. Tim Meadowcroft: A Desolate Land, People and Temple: Haggai and the Environment

Dr. Anthony Cole: Indigenous Transdisciplinarity, Christianity and the central role of natural ecosystems in achieving the goal of cultural survival for the ropu tuku iho of Ngati Raukawa

Rev. Dr. Anthony Dancer: Being just where we are: A theology of place in a climate of change

Dr. Winston Halapua: Tuvalu and Climate Change: Is there a place Tuvalu in New Zealand?

Dr. Richard Storey: Experiencing creation and community: reflections from A Rocha.

Dr. Carolyn King: What can game theory tell us about public attitudes to environmental initiatives?

Peter Wilcox: God so loved the World...'A holistic approach to care for the environment.

Andrew Shepherd: Beyond Dominion: Ecological Hospitality and Ethics

Dr. Nicola Hoggard Creegan: Jonathan Edwards' ecological/ethical vision of nature

Dr. Duncan Roper Lynn White Forty years on - a Case of Missed Blind Alleys

Dr. Murray Sheard Seeking Fair Weather: Distributing the Burdens of Climate Change Mitigation.

Schedule

10.00 Welcome
10.20 Andrew Shepherd
10.45 Duncan Roper
11.10 Discussion
11.30 break

11.45 Carolyn King
12.15-12.35 Murray Sheard
12.35- 12.45 discussion.

12.45-1.45 LUNCH

1.45 Anthony Dancer
2.10 Anthony Cole
2.35 Winston Halapua
3.00 Break
3.30 Discussion

3.45 Nicola H-C
4.00 Richard Storey
4.25 Peter Wilcox
4.50 Discussion

5.30-6.30 Dinner
6.30-7.30 A Rocha committee meeting

7.30 John Flenley (public lecture)
8.30 Discussion